Cattle Receipts Too Light to Make a Market.

The hog market showed another advance yesterday in spite of the fact that provisions were lower. The buyers here tried to hold prices steady because they had been advanced hore when other markets were lower, but the competition was too strong and at the close the market was 56 higher. Both sellers and buyers was too strong and at the close the market was 56 higher. Both sellers and buyers feating that hon this market buy there does not solom to be market show for widening the margin between this and Missouri river. margin between this and Missouri river nparkets. Outside orders to some extent as the cause of the advance, but the prime factor was light receipts. One car load of even hogs yesterday brought $5.40 and inf even hogs yesterday brought $5.10 and mixed hogs sold readily for $5.20 and $5.50. Dold and Cudahy were the principal buyers but Armour took some of the high-priced hogs. The buyers waited for the late trains and bids were made on hogs that had not arrived at 6 o'clock p. m.
